Subject Outline:

During this course students are taught the essential elements of drafting and graphics. Students are taught how to use traditional drafting tools such as drawing boards and T-Squares as well as existing and emerging technologies such as Computer Aiding Drafting programs. Elements are taught independently of each other and then in the context of a real life situation. ie Design all plans for a small beach hut and make a prototype.

Contributes to OP:

No

Assessment Outline

Assessment is made up of drawing portfolios, practical tasks and assignments.

Career Pathways: