Ongoing One-on-One Meetings with Chaplain at REDLYNCH STATE COLLEGE

Dear

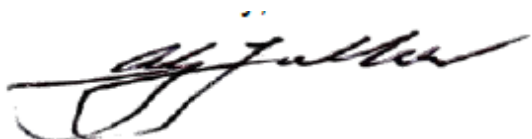

This school community provides a chaplaincy service endorsed by the school's Parents and Citizens Association and available on a voluntary basis to all students. Information about the service has been provided to you previously and is available on the school's website.

Your child has accessed the chaplain and has indicated interest in meeting individually with them on a regular or ongoing basis. For this to occur written parental consent is required. The focus of these meetings will be determined by the student's need, however chaplains are not allowed to provide counselling, evangelise or proselytise, advocate for or denigrate a particular worldview of faith.

In order to ensure coordinated case management of the student support, each referral that a chaplain makes to an external agency requires the explicit approval of the school's principal, deputy principal or guidance officer.

If you would like to discuss this matter, please contact myself on 4039 9222 or the school chaplains, Sharon Beck (Primary) & Izaak Ayres-Walker (Secondary).

Yours sincerely,

Tony Fuller

Executive Principal
